THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT. We need to know the gift is coming in order to track receipt of the securities, and to give proper acknowledgement of the gift. Here is what we need to know:

- Your Name
- The name of your brokerage firm sending the securities
- The name of your financial advisor
- Your financial advisor's phone number
- The type of security being gifted (e.g. stock, bond, or mutual fund)
- The name of the security (e.g. IBM stock; Fidelity Growth Fund)
- How many shares, or units, of the security are being gifted
- Is your gift for the FPCA Endowment Fund, or your Annual Giving Pledge?

FYI – About 'Medallion Signature Guarantees' – Some brokerage firms require them to be added to their paperwork. Generally a 'Medallion Signature Guarantees' can be obtained from your local bank. Bringing in: 1.) A copy of your statement that shows ownership of the investments you are gifting to the church. 2.) Bring with you a photo I.D., and 3.) Sign the Gifting form in front of the individual who will apply the Medallion Signature Guarantee to the form.
